Mr. S. P. Noe,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

Since its establishment in this country The Manchester Guardian has been endeavoring to build up as complete an organization as possible for interpreting American life and activities.

We are therefore gathering information on the contribution societies such as yours are making to the progress of American thought and policies at the present day.

The Manchester Guardian would appreciate your cooperation to the extent of furnishing us with your latest year-book and if possible with a list of the persons distinguished in the life of the country who have been past or present members of your society.

We would also like to have any other facts in connection with your society which might be of interest to us editorially.

Yours faithfully,

THE MANCHESTER GUARDIAN
